

the children of your petitioner at her decease.

Your petitioner further states that since she has become proprietress of said Estate the left time right ^{in said place} has been sold to satisfy her said Husband's debts; and that he has conveyed the whole of the residue of said Estate and left your petitioner entirely dependent on her friends for a subsistence. Your petitioner's friends are still desirous to afford her a comfortable support in her old age and leave other property upon her provided it can be placed beyond the control of her said Husband. Your petitioner therefore prays your Honorable body to pass a bill directing to her such estate as she may hereafter acquire either by gift descent or her own industry and your petitioner as in duty bound will pray.

Jane Wilborn